(F) Attorneys, parties, court personnel, and all other persons shall conduct themselves in a courteous manner in the Courtroom. Attorneys shall conduct themselves in accordance with Gov. Bar R. (a) It is counsel’s responsibility to take reasonable measures, including the procurement of supplemental reports, to insure that each report adequately sets forth the expert’s opinion.

(b) Unless good cause is shown, all reports must be provided to other counsel/parties no later than thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the hearing in which the expert will be called as a witness.

(c) The report of an expert must reflect his or her opinions as to each issue on which the expert will testify. An expert will not be permitted to testify or provide opinions on issues not raised in his or her report.

The court may exclude testimony of the expert if good cause is not demonstrated for the absence of a report.

The court will arrange for an objective interpreter to be present for the hearing. The interpreter will be compensated by the Court pursuant to our Court Interpreter Fiscal Policy (Appendix V). The requesting party’s failure to appear at the hearing may result in the assessment of the costs of the interpreter's attendance at the hearing to that party.

Notice of the date and time of hearing shall be given to the attorneys for the parties or the parties if they are pro se. Unless otherwise ordered, any pleading responsive to the motion must be filed by the earlier of twenty (20) days after the filing of the motion or seven (7) days prior to hearing upon the motion. If such a responsive pleading is filed, the hearing may be used as a pre-trial and scheduling conference rather than a hearing on the merits.

(M) Prehearing Motions. Prehearing motions shall be filed and heard in accordance with Juv. R. 22(D) and (E), Civ. R. 7 or Crim. R. 47, as applicable. All Prehearing motions shall be in writing except with leave of court. All motions shall state with particularity the grounds therefore and shall set forth the relief or order sought. All motions may be accompanied by a memorandum in support if such would be helpful to the court. A memorandum shall be submitted upon order of the court in the time and manner specified.

(4) Court discretion to modify rule.

(a) Court may require personal appearances. The court may require a party to appear in person at a hearing, conference, or proceeding in which a telephone appearance is otherwise authorized by this rule if the court determines that a personal appearance would materially assist in the determination of the proceedings or in the effective management or resolution of the particular case.

(b) Court may permit appearances by telephone. The court may permit a party to appear by telephone at a hearing, conference, or proceeding for which a personal appearance is otherwise required if the court determines that a telephone appearance is appropriate.

(6) Notice by party. A party choosing to appear by telephone at a hearing, conference, or proceeding under this rule must either:

(a) Place the phrase "Telephone Appearance" below the title of the moving, opposing, or reply papers; or

(b) At least three court days before the appearance, notify the Court and all other parties of the party's intent to appear by telephone. Oral notice must be done on the record. If the notice is in writing, it must be given by filing a "Notice of Intent to Appear by Telephone" with the court at least three court days before the appearance and by serving the notice at the same time on all other parties by personal delivery, fax transmission, express mail, or other means reasonably calculated to ensure delivery to the parties no later than the close of the next business day.

(c) If after receiving notice from another party as provided under W.C. Juv. R. 4(N)(6)(a) or (b) above, a party that has not given notice also decides to appear by telephone, the party may do so by notifying the court and all other parties that have appeared in the action of their intent to also appear by telephone. Said notification should be provided by noon on the day prior to the hearing.

(d) If a party that has given notice that it intends to appear by telephone under W.C. Juv. R. 4(N)(6)(a) or (b) above, subsequently chooses to appear in person, the party must so notify the court and all other parties that have appeared in the action, by telephone, at least two court days before the appearance.

(e) The court, on a showing of good cause, may permit a party to appear by telephone at a conference, hearing, or proceeding even if the party has not given the notice required under W.C. Juv. R. 4(N)(6)(a), (b) or (c) above, and may permit a party to appear in person even if the party has not given the notice required in W.C. Juv. R. 4(N)(6)(d) above.

(7) Notice by court. After a party has requested a telephone appearance under W.C. Juv. R. 4(N)(6) above, if the court requires the personal appearance of the party, the court must give reasonable notice to all parties before the hearing and may continue the hearing if necessary to accommodate the personal appearance. The court may direct the court clerk, a court-appointed vendor, a party, or an attorney to provide the notification.

(8) Private vendor; charges for service. A court may provide teleconferencing for court appearances by entering into a contract with a private vendor. The contract may provide that the vendor may charge the party appearing by telephone a reasonable fee, specified in the contract, for its services.

(9) Audibility and procedure. The court must ensure that the statements of participants are audible to all other participants and the court staff and that the statements made by a participant are identified as being made by that participant.

(10) Reporting. All proceedings involving telephone appearances must be reported to the same extent and in the same manner as if the participants had appeared in person.

(O) Juvenile Competency Proceedings

(1) General Purpose. The purpose of these rules is to expedite proceedings under sections 2152.51 to 2152.59 of the Revised Code, to ensure that proper notice of competency hearings is provided to the appropriate persons, and to ensure that any proceedings on an underlying complaint are stayed pending the determinations under these sections.

(2) Expedited Hearings. Juvenile competency proceedings shall be scheduled and heard on an expedited basis. Hearings in juvenile competency proceedings shall be held in strict compliance with applicable deadlines as established by statute or by this rule.

(3) Notice. The court shall provide written notice to the prosecuting attorney, the child's attorney, the child's guardian ad litem, and the child's parents, guardian or custodian of the date, time and place of each scheduled hearing. Mailed notice shall not be required for any party or other individual designated in this rule to whom notice of the next hearing was provided in writing upon conclusion of the immediately preceding hearing.

(4) Stay of Proceedings. Upon the filing of a motion for a determination regarding a child's competency or upon the court's own motion the court shall stay all delinquency proceedings pending a determination of competency. If, upon a determination of competency, the court determines that the child is not competent but could likely attain competency, the court order staying the delinquency proceedings shall remain in effect until such time as the child attains competency or the proceeding is dismissed.

(P) Courtroom Use of Physical Restraints

(1) Physical restraints shall not be utilized unless the judge or magistrate before whom the child is appearing makes an individualized determination on the record that there is no less restrictive alternative to the use of physical restraint and that the physical restraint of the child is necessary because of either of the following:

- (a) The child represents a current and significant threat to the safety of the child's self or other persons in the courtroom;
- (b) There is a significant risk the child will flee the courtroom.

(2) The judge or magistrate shall permit any party, as defined in Juv. R. 2(Y), to be heard on the issue of whether the use of physical restraint is necessary for that particular child at that particular proceeding;

(3) If physical restraint is found necessary by the judge or magistrate, require the restraint be the least restrictive necessary to meet the risk requiring the restraint and in a manner which does not necessarily restrict the movement of the child's hands.

RULE 5. COUNSEL; GUARDIAN AD LITEM

(A) “Juvenile cases” include all actions within the subject matter jurisdiction of the juvenile court, including, criminal actions, delinquency, unruly, child protective services proceedings, juvenile traffic offender actions, parentage actions and child custody, support and visitation proceedings. The provisions of this rule shall apply to all juvenile cases unless the context indicates otherwise or a rule of procedure is provided elsewhere in these rules to apply specifically to the particular kind of case.

(B) Right to Counsel; Appointment of Counsel

(1) The right to court appointed counsel shall be as provided by law.

(2) Applications for Court Appointed Counsel (WCJC Form 12.0 Financial Disclosure/Affidavit of Indigency) shall be accompanied by such income/asset verification as may be necessary to permit determination that the applicant qualifies for court appointed counsel. An application fee may be charged unless waived by the Court.

(a) Applications for court appointed counsel shall be completed and submitted with all supporting documentation within seven (7) calendar days after the party was advised by the Court of his/her right to court appointed counsel unless the seventh day is a day upon which the Court is not open for business in which case the completed application shall be submitted upon the next day upon which the Court is open for business. Should an adult fail to submit the application for court appointed counsel in accordance with this rule, absent good cause, such failure may be considered a waiver of the right to court appointed counsel and/or may not serve as the basis for continuance of trial or hearing. A party may assert a right to court appointed counsel at any stage of the proceedings. A prior waiver of the right to court appointed counsel shall not prevent a party from subsequently asserting such right.

(b) The Court shall advise unrepresented parties of their rights and responsibilities provided in this rule at their initial appearance before the Court.

(3) Children’s right to be represented by counsel may not be waived when a serious youthful offender dispositional sentence has been requested; when there is a conflict or disagreement between the child and the parent, guardian, or custodian; the child’s parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) or sibling(s) are the alleged victim(s); or if the parent, guardian, or the custodian requests that the child be removed from the home. A child alleged to be delinquent by reason of the commission of an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult may not waive the right to be represented by counsel unless the child has met privately with counsel to discuss the child’s right to counsel and the disadvantages of self-representation. A child may waive the right to counsel only after consulting with their parent(s), guardian(s) or custodian(s) and the Court determines that such a waiver is not contrary to the child’s best interest. Any waiver of the right to counsel shall be made in open court, recorded, and in writing.

(a) In those cases in which a child may not waive counsel and where the child does not qualify for court appointed counsel and the child’s parent, guardian or custodian does not retain counsel, then the court will appoint counsel and tax as court costs the fees of counsel. The Court will allocate such costs between the child’s parent(s), guardian(s) and/or custodian(s) as the Court finds is appropriate.

(4) A court appointed attorney may withdraw or be terminated/removed only with the consent of the court upon good cause shown. It shall be the court, and not the attorney seeking to withdraw, that will assign substitute counsel.

(5) The Court may fix compensation for the services of appointed counsel, tax the same as part of the costs, and assess them against the child, her/his parent, custodian, or other person in loco parentis of such child.

(6) Appointed counsel fees shall be based upon the Court's court appointed counsel fee schedule and the standards and guidelines/maximum fee schedule/reimbursement standards of the Office of the Ohio Public Defender and the limitations and restrictions set forth therein, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

(7) Eligibility for court appointed counsel shall be determined in accordance with the Indigent Client Eligibility Guidelines promulgated by the Office of the Ohio Public Defender.

(8) Appointed Counsel - in order to be considered and approved for, and to maintain placement on the Court's appointment list of attorneys, the following standards must be met:

- be an attorney in good standing with the Supreme Court of Ohio;
- inform the Court of any prior disciplinary complaints against the attorney which resulted in sanctions;
- maintain a working telephone with the ability to respond to calls from the Court or client;
- either maintain professional liability (malpractice) insurance in an amount equal to the minimum coverage required by the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct [ORPC], or comply with ORPC 1.4(c) at the time of the appointment;

- attorneys are under an ongoing duty to notify the Court of changes in their status, address, or telephone number;
- attorneys must comply with the requirements outlined in Ohio Administrative Code 120-1-10 for the respective cases they wish to undertake; and
- Complete and return the Certification of Compliance with State Standards for Appointment of Counsel and/or Certification of Compliance with State Standards for Appointment of Counsel – Appeals ("Certifications") (Appendices VIII & IX).

To comply with the spirit of Rule 8 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio, attorneys shall be appointed on the basis of a rotating schedule which the Court has in place which shall ensure, to the extent possible, that each attorney on the list is provided with an opportunity to obtain an equitable share of appointments. The Court strives to equitably distribute the appointments among all persons on the appointment lists commensurate with their training and experience as identified by the appointed attorney in the Certifications enumerated above. Attorneys accepting appointments are responsible for providing proof of their qualifications if asked to do so by the Court. *Acceptance of appointments to cases the attorney is not qualified to handle under this Rule disqualifies them from being compensated for the representation, may subject them to removal from the appointments list and could result in other consequences outside of the Court. In the event the attorney is assigned a case that does not meet the attorney's qualifications, the attorney shall immediately file a motion and proposed entry withdrawing from the case so that an attorney with the proper qualifications can be appointed by the Court to undertake representation of the case. The court may, in its discretion, deviate from the rotating schedule in order to assure the efficient and orderly administration of justice. Further, in the interest of justice, and for good cause, the Court may remove an assigned attorney as defense counsel.

Attorneys shall update their Certifications, as needed, or at a minimum every year by December 31st in order to remain on the appointed counsel list. Attorneys are under an ongoing obligation to notify the court of changes to their status, qualifications and contact information.

(9) Attorneys who are appointed by the Court shall submit a Court Appointed Counsel Fee Application (WCJC Form 13.0 Motion, Entry, and Certification for Appointed Counsel Fees). All fee applications must be filed within thirty (30) days after the last day of the month in which the most recent services indicated on the fee application were rendered. If fees are sought for services rendered after disposition and/or after the most recent hearing, the Court may require that the fee application be accompanied by a statement describing such services and their necessity. Failure to comply with this rule may result in partial payment or nonpayment of fees. The attorney/guardian ad litem filing the application shall retain a time stamped copy.

(P) MEDIATION

(1) Mediation Order: At any time after service of summons in an action for allocation of parental rights and responsibilities, the Court may order parties into mediation or the parties may voluntarily request to participate in the mediation process.

(2) Scope and Purpose

(a) The Court may mediate parenting time and visitation issues pursuant to R.C. section 3109.052.

(b) The purpose of mediation is to promote greater efficiency and public satisfaction through the facilitation of the earliest possible resolution for Warren County Juvenile Court cases.

(3) Criteria:

(a) In considering whether to order a case to mediation or whether to continue with mediation once it is ordered, the Court and/or mediator will consider relevant factors, including the following:

(i) whether either party has been convicted of or pled guilty to a violation of R.C. section 2919.25, or whether either party has committed an act resulting in a child being adjudicated to have been abused; in either case, mediation will be ordered only if the Court determines that it is in the best interests of the parties for mediation to proceed and supports that determination with specific written findings of fact;

(ii) whether one party is genuinely in fear of the other where domestic violence is alleged, regardless of whether there is a conviction;

(iii) whether one or both parties are alleged to have a significant drug and/or alcohol dependency;

(iv) whether one of the parties is mentally ill or has significant psychological problems that might interfere with mediation;

(v) whether the physical distance between the parties is so great that it is not feasible for them to maintain a consistent mediation schedule.

(b) Mediation will not be used:

(i) as an alternative to the prosecution or adjudication of domestic violence;

(ii) in determining whether to grant, modify or terminate a protection order;

(iii) in determining the terms and conditions of a protection order;

(iv) in determining the penalty for violation of a protection order.

However, nothing in this rule shall prohibit the use of mediation in a subsequent custody case, even though that case may result in the termination of the provisions of a protection order.

(c) When violence and/or fear of violence is alleged, suspected, or present, mediation may only occur if the mediator has specialized training as set forth in the Ohio Rule of Superintendence 16(C)(2) and all the conditions contained in Ohio Rule of Superintendence 16(B)(2) are met.

(i) the Court shall have appropriate procedures in place to provide for the safety of the person who is or may be the victim of domestic violence and all other persons present at the mediation.

(ii) the mediator may terminate mediation if he or she believes there is a continued threat of domestic violence or coercion between the parties.

(4) Procedure:

(a) The Court may refer disputed issues to mediation in whole or in part. A party can request mediation but must file a motion with the Court requesting same. Both parties shall complete a mediation intake form. The mediation intake form will include information to facilitate screening for domestic violence and conflicts of interest.

(b) An order to mediate will not stay the implementation of any temporary orders issued by this Court nor any scheduling order, discovery matter, or hearing.

(c) Each party to the case who has full settlement authority shall attend the mediation conference.

(d) A mediator may schedule multiple mediation sessions if necessary and mutually agreeable for the resolution of the issues. At the conclusion of mediation, the mediator shall submit a mediation report to the Court (which shall not be filed in the Court's case file) and provide copies to the parties and their attorneys if represented. A mediation report shall indicate whether agreement has been reached on any of the issues that were the subject of the mediation.

(e) Any written mediation agreement shall be forwarded to counsel and a copy given to the parties. Mediation agreements shall not be filed with the Court.

(f) Any agreements reached during mediation shall not be binding upon the parties until approved by the parties' attorneys, if any, and by the Court, which shall consider the best interest of the children when allocating parental rights and responsibilities and/or establishing a parenting schedule.

(g) Pursuant to Ohio Rules of Superintendence 16, parties are permitted to have their attorneys and other individuals they designate accompany them and participate in mediation. Attorney attendance, or attendance by anyone other than the parties, although not expected or encouraged, will be allowed only if sufficient advance notice is given so that opposing counsel may be notified and given an opportunity to attend.

(h) Children shall not be brought to the mediation session.

(i) Where appropriate, the mediator will provide appropriate referrals to legal counsel and other support services for all parties.

(5) Cost of Mediation:

(a) Court-connected mediation is provided at no cost to the parties.

(b) If any individual ordered by the Court to attend mediation fails to attend mediation without good cause, the Court may impose sanctions which may include, but are not limited to, contempt proceedings.

(6) Mediator Qualifications: Mediators shall have minimum qualifications as set forth in Rule 16 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio. All mediators are encouraged to comply with the Model Standards of Practice for Family and Divorce Mediation.

(7) Privilege: Statements made during the course of mediation assessment or the mediation sessions are privileged and shall not be admissible as evidence in any subsequent proceedings in this Court except as required by law. R.C. section 2317.02 and section 2710.01 et seq. This rule does not require the exclusion of any evidence which is otherwise discoverable merely because it is presented in the course of mediation.

(Q) TOGETHER, WE HAVE A CHILD

(E) "Emergency" as used in this rule, for purposes of seeking ex parte orders allocating parental rights and responsibilities, changing legal custody or establishing visitation, means that there is an imminent or immediate risk of injury or damage to the health, safety or welfare of the child who is the subject of the pleading which necessitates some action be taken to address the risk before the adverse party or his attorney can be heard in opposition or a hearing may be conducted.

(F) The Court may deny motions for ex parte orders and/or emergency hearings where the pleadings do not show that there is an emergency or where the motion is not accompanied by the affidavit required by W.C. Juv. R. 18(D).

(G) When the Court designates a temporary residential parent/custodian for children, the Court may consider granting temporary child support.

(1) The amount of the temporary child support order shall be calculated pursuant to O.R.C. chapter 3119 and a child support computation worksheet shall be attached to each temporary order.

(2) Temporary child support orders shall be effective on the date stated or, if none, on the date the order is filed. APPENDIX I

PARENTING TIME; MODEL PARENTING SCHEDULE

INTRODUCTION

The Court may consider an order granting parenting time rights in an original parentage action pursuant to Revised Code section 3119.08 and/or as an order in the best interests of the child as authorized by Revised Code section 3111.13 (C). Parties shall be prepared to address parenting time issues whether or not raised in the pleadings.

The Court may grant a model order of parenting time as set forth herein or a special order of parenting time.

Parents/legal custodians are encouraged to create parenting schedules tailored to the specific needs of the child(ren), taking into account their respective work schedules and the individual needs of the child(ren).

This parenting schedule is not intended to apply in all cases where there is disagreement upon a parenting schedule. Rather, this schedule is to provide a model parenting schedule that addresses most parenting time issues.

Parenting time issues in juvenile court cases oftentimes present situations where a child(ren)'s parents may never have resided together and/or where a parent may never have resided with the child(ren) who are subject(s) of the case. Additionally, the Court will also consider situations in which a child's legal custodian is not a parent of the child. These situations oftentimes make application of a model parenting time order problematical.

This schedule should not be considered by a party as a minimum entitlement to parenting time. The Court shall exercise discretion in determining whether this parenting schedule is appropriate in any given case based upon the totality of the circumstances and the best interests of the child(ren). In cases where this schedule is not appropriate the Court shall issue a special parenting time schedule. The Court may incorporate by reference into any special parenting time schedule such portions of this model parenting schedule as may be appropriate.

These schedules are intended to further two goals: (1) preservation of or development of a close relationship between child(ren) and each parent; and (2) consideration of the changing developmental needs of the child(ren).

Note: For purposes of interpreting this order and if a shared parenting plan refers to this schedule, the party with whom the child(ren) spend the majority of time shall be referred to as the residential parent and the other parent as the non-residential parent provided that the shared parenting plan does not contain any provisions to the contrary.

A. INFANTS - BIRTH TO 2 MONTHS: (Parenting time is spent in the residential parent's residence)

For infants up to two months of age, the non-residential parent may spend time with the baby in the residential parent's home three days per week, for two hours per visit. If the parties cannot agree as to days and time, the following schedule shall be followed: 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on each Sunday and each Tuesday and Thursday evening from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

B. INFANTS - 2 MONTHS TO AGE 2 (Commencing at age 2 months, parenting time is spent away from residential parent's residence.)

1. Beginning at two months through nine months, the non-residential parent may spend time with the child away from the residential parent's residence every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and one day each weekend, alternating between Saturday and Sunday, from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.
2. From ten months to two years, the non-residential parent may spend time with the child as follows: every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and on alternating weekends from Saturday at 10:00 a.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m.
3. Holidays: In odd numbered years, the non-residential parent may spend time with the child(ren) from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on President's Day, Memorial Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve. In even numbered years, the non-residential parent may spend time with the child(ren) from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Easter, July 4th, Labor Day and Christmas Day.
4. Older Siblings: If there are older brothers and sisters of the infant child(ren), the parenting time (including holidays) set forth below for children ages two years through twelve years shall govern infant visitation once the infant is two months old.

C. CHILDREN - AGE 2 THROUGH AGE 12 The non-residential parent shall spend time with the children according to one of the following schedules as designated in the current court order:

Model I:

1. Weekends: Alternate weekends beginning Friday at 6:00 p.m. and ending Sunday at 6:00 p.m.
2. Weekdays: Every Wednesday (or other day by agreement) from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Model II:

1. Weekends: Alternate weekends beginning Friday at 6:00 p.m. and ending Monday morning at school or 9:00 a.m. if no school.
2. Weekdays: Every Wednesday (or other day by agreement) from 5:30 p.m. to the following morning at school or 9:00 a.m. if no school.

D. TEENAGERS - AGE 13 THROUGH 15:

Weekends and Weekdays: It is recommended that the above schedule for children age two through twelve be continued through age fifteen if possible. However, parents should respect a teenager's need to spend time with peers and in organized activities, and less time with each parent, especially during weekends and summer holidays. Quality of time is more important than a rigid schedule. Flexibility in scheduling is necessary. When possible, it is preferable to consider the teenager's wishes as long as the parents agree. At a minimum, the non-residential parent may spend time with children in this age bracket every Wednesday from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and at least one overnight and day on alternating weekends.

E. TEENAGERS - AGE 16 UNTIL 18:

Parenting time for children in this age bracket shall be fixed between the child and the non-residential parent. Parenting time shall not be limited other than as the child and the non-residential parent choose.

F. HOLIDAYS (for children aged 2-18 and subject to sections C, D and E above):

1. In odd numbered years, Mother will have the child(ren) and in even numbered years Father will have the children on:

July 4th : from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m.

Labor Day: from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Monday at 7:00 p.m.

Christmas Break: from December 24th at 9:00 p.m. to January 1st at 6:00 p.m.

2. In odd numbered years, Father will have the child(ren) and in even numbered years Mother will have the children on:

Martin Luther King Day: from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Monday at 7:00 p.m.

President's Day: from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Monday at 7:00 p.m.

Memorial Day: from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Monday at 7:00 p.m.

Halloween: from 30 minutes prior to and 30 minutes after the conclusion of the community's scheduled hours. In the event Beggar's Night occurs on different days in Mother's and Father's communities, each parent shall have parenting time during their respective communities' observance of Beggar's Night.

Thanksgiving: from Wednesday night at 6:00 p.m. to Thursday at 7:00 p.m. unless the following weekend is that parent's regularly scheduled weekend, in which case the parenting time shall continue until the regular termination of the visiting party's weekend visitation/parenting time.

Christmas: from December 21st or the last day of school, whichever is later, at 6:00 p.m. to December 24th at 9:00 p.m.

Spring Break: commencing at 9:00 a.m. the day after school recesses to 6:00 p.m. the day before school resumes. (Only applies to school age children).

3. Other important days:

Mother's Day: With the mother from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Father's Day: With the father from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Birthdays: No special provision is made for the children's birthdays unless otherwise agreed.

Other Cultural

Holidays: Any other religious holidays, cultural holidays or days of significance not referenced herein shall be addressed by agreement of the parties or court order.

If any of the above holidays falls on a Monday following that parent’s regular weekend, then the parenting time will be continuous through the holiday.

G. Extended Parenting Time, Summer Vacations and Travel:

The non-residential parent shall have extended parenting time with the child(ren) to coincide with his or her work vacation if possible. The parenting time may extend to two weeks (non-consecutive) for ages two to four years; it may extend to two consecutive weeks for ages four and five years; and it may extend for up to four weeks (with no more than two weeks being consecutive) for ages six through twelve years. The residential parent may also have an extended vacation with the child(ren) not to exceed two weeks. All parenting/vacation time taken under this section must be taken in blocks of time of at least seven days. Each parent must give the other parent thirty days prior written notice of the dates he or she intends to have extended parenting time or vacation with the child or children. In the case of conflict, the schedule of the parent who first gives written notice to the other parent shall prevail. For any vacation or holiday travel, each parent must provide the other parent with destination, times of arrival and departure, and methods of travel. If there are children in different age brackets, the provisions set forth for the oldest age bracket shall govern as to all children, except that there shall be no extended parenting time/vacation for children under two years of age. NOTE: Child support will not be reduced during summer vacation periods specified in this provision.

H. RULES REGARDING PARENTING TIME:

1. Conflicting Schedules: In the event of any conflict between parenting time schedules, the following is the order of precedence:

- a. Holidays
- b. Vacation periods or extended parenting times
- c. Weekends and mid-week days

For example, one parent may not schedule his or her summer vacation to include July 4th if July 4th is the other parent’s holiday that year. As another example, the residential parent may be entitled to have the children on the Easter holiday even though it falls on the non-residential parent’s alternating weekend. In this case, the non-residential parent’s weekend shall conclude at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday evening.

2. Illness: Parenting time shall be provided to the non-residential parent even if the child is ill unless the child is hospitalized or a physician has recommended that the child not be removed from the residential parent’s home, in which event immediate notice shall be given to the non-residential parent. Any weekend parenting time that is missed under this provision shall be made up the following weekend.

3. Telephone and Mail: Both parents may have reasonable telephone contact with the child(ren) not to exceed once a day between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. If the children are not available, the child(ren) should return the telephone call. Both parents shall encourage free communications between the child(ren) and the other parent and shall not do anything to impede or restrict reasonable communications by telephone or mail between the child(ren) and the other parent, whether initiated by the child(ren) or the other parent. Any mail between the child(ren) and either parent shall be strictly confidential and shall not be opened or read by the other parent.

4. Cooperation: Both parents shall refrain from criticizing the other parent or arguing with the other parent in the presence of the child(ren).

5. Exchange of Phone Numbers: Unless this Court orders otherwise each parent must keep the other parent informed of his or her current telephone number and a telephone number where the child(ren) may be reached.

6. Transportation: In the event that the parents are unable to reach an agreement regarding transportation, the parent receiving the child(ren) shall arrange transportation. For example, if the parents are following the Model Order of this Court, the non-residential parent will pick up the children from the residential parent's home on Friday evenings. Likewise on Sunday evenings the residential parent will pick up the children from the non-residential parent's home. In the event that either party moves and thereby increases the distance that existed between the parties at the time of the last court order by more than 25 miles, that party must provide all of the transportation or file a motion to have the transportation duties reviewed. Until such hearing, the moving parent shall provide all the transportation.

7. Grace Period: The transporting parent for parenting time shall have a grace period of fifteen minutes for pick up and delivery if both parties live within thirty miles of each other. If the one way distance to be traveled is more than thirty miles, the grace period shall be thirty minutes. In the event the non-residential parent exceeds the grace period, that period of parenting time is forfeited unless prior notification and arrangements have been made and excepting cases where the non-residential parent lives in excess of thirty miles away and suffers an unavoidable breakdown, or delay en route and the non-residential parent promptly notifies the residential parent by telephone of the delay. Repeated violations by either parent shall be cause for granting a modification of the parenting order.

8. Clothing and Supplies for Children: The residential parent shall send with the child(ren) on parenting time sufficient clothing and outerwear appropriate for the season and for any known, planned activities. For the weekend, this shall consist of a minimum of a coat and shoes appropriate for the weather, two extra sets of play clothes, one dress outfit and underwear, in addition to the clothes the children are wearing at the time of the start of the weekend. In the case of infants, the residential parent shall send with the child(ren) sufficient bottles, formula and diapers and shall inform the non-residential parent of the child's sleeping and eating schedules. The non-residential parent shall return all items that are sent with the child(ren) at the end of his or her parenting time.

9. Child(ren)'s Activities: Scheduled periods of parenting time shall not be delayed or denied because a child has other activities (with friends, work, lessons, sports, etc.). It is the responsibility of the parents to discuss extra-curricular activities of the child(ren) in advance, including time, dates and transportation needs, so that the child(ren) are not deprived of activities and maintaining friends. Each parent shall provide the other with copies of any written material (i.e. activity schedules, maps, instructions) that are distributed in connection with the child(ren)'s activities. The parent who has the child(ren) during the time of scheduled activities is responsible for transportation, attendance and/or other arrangements. Both parents are encouraged to attend all their child(ren)'s activities.

CONCLUSION

Flexibility in the implementation of the foregoing schedule to best suit the changing needs of the child(ren) and the employment schedules of the parents is encouraged. HOWEVER, absent an order of this Court, the foregoing schedule shall be followed absent a clear, mutual understanding between parents to deviate. Any modification shall be in writing, if feasible.

Experts uniformly agree that the absence of conflict between parents is more critical to a child's welfare than the amount of time either parent spends with the child.

NOTIFICATIONS
Revised 02-01-14

SUPPORT

IT IS ORDERED that the obligor is hereby restrained from making any payments directly to obligee. All current support payments and arrearage payments must be made through the Warren County Child Support Enforcement Agency ("CSEA") or the Ohio Child Support Payment Central ("OCSPC"). Any payments not made in this manner shall be deemed a gift.

All child support and spousal support under this order shall be withheld or deducted from the wages or assets of the obligor pursuant to a withholding or deduction notice or appropriate court order issued in accordance with Chapters 3119, 3121, 3123 and 3125 of the Ohio Revised Code ("ORC") and shall be forwarded to the obligee in accordance with Chapter 3121 of the ORC.

All child support and spousal support paid under this order shall include a two percent (2%) processing charge.

If child support arrearages are determined by the Court or the CSEA, repayment shall be at the rate of twenty percent (20%) of the current order, plus two percent (2%) processing charge, absent any Court ruling as to a different repayment schedule.

Any income provider who receives a Notice to Income Provider to Withhold Obligor/Income/Assets from the CSEA must immediately commence withholding in the amount and manner directed in the notice. Any income provider who fails to comply with the notice is subject to a finding of contempt of Court.

Support payments shall be forwarded to the OCSPC, P.O. Box 182372, Columbus, Ohio 43218. Until such time as the Notice to Income Provider To Withhold Income/Assets becomes effective, the obligor shall be responsible to make the appropriate payments directly to the OCSPC by certified check, cashier's check, or money order only. Cash payments may be made to the Warren County CSEA, 500 Justice Drive, Lebanon, Ohio 45036.

Child support for each child shall continue until that child reaches the age of eighteen and pursuant to ORC §3103.03 no longer continuously attends on a full-time basis any recognized and accredited high school, is otherwise emancipated, or unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except in cases in which a child support order requires the duty of support to continue for any period after the child reaches age nineteen, the order shall not remain in effect after the child reaches age nineteen.

The Court retains jurisdiction to address the issue of support and to enter an order at any time in the future upon motion of either party based on changed circumstances. The Court also retains jurisdiction to enter a support order in the future at any time as either party may request and receive any public assistance for a child or children herein.

The obligee shall notify the Warren County CSEA, 500 Justice Drive, P.O. Box 440, Lebanon, Ohio 45036-0440, in writing, of any change in the status of the minor children of the parties which would terminate the duty of the obligor to pay any portion of the child support order. In the event of a reconciliation or remarriage of the parties, both parties are also required to notify the Warren County CSEA in writing of such a change. The parties are hereby ordered to notify the Warren County CSEA in writing of any change of his or her current mailing or residence address, or change of name.

Willful failure to provide a change of address to the CSEA is contempt of Court. The obligor shall notify the Warren County CSEA in writing immediately upon any change of employment. This duty to notify shall continue until further order of the Court.

EACH PARTY TO THIS SUPPORT ORDER MUST NOTIFY THE CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT AGENCY IN WRITING OF HIS OR HER CURRENT MAILING ADDRESS, CURRENT RESIDENCE ADDRESS, CURRENT RESIDENCE TELEPHONE NUMBER, CURRENT DRIVER'S LICENSE NUMBER, AND OF ANY CHANGES IN THAT INFORMATION. EACH PARTY MUST NOTIFY THE AGENCY OF ALL CHANGES UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE FROM THE COURT OR AGENCY, WHICHEVER ISSUED THE SUPPORT ORDER. IF YOU ARE THE OBLIGOR UNDER A CHILD SUPPORT ORDER AND YOU FAIL TO MAKE THE REQUIRED NOTIFICATIONS, YOU MAY BE FINED UP TO $50 FOR A FIRST OFFENSE, $100 FOR A SECOND OFFENSE, AND $500 FOR EACH SUBSEQUENT OFFENSE. IF YOU ARE AN OBLIGOR OR OBLIGEE UNDER ANY SUPPORT ORDER ISSUED BY A COURT AND YOU WILLFULLY FAIL TO GIVE THE REQUIRED NOTICES, YOU MAY BE FOUND IN CONTEMPT OF COURT AND BE SUBJECTED TO FINES UP TO $1,000 AND IMPRISONMENT FOR NOT MORE THAN 90 DAYS.

IF YOU ARE AN OBLIGOR AND YOU FAIL TO GIVE THE REQUIRED NOTICES, YOU MAY NOT RECEIVE NOTICE OF THE FOLLOWING ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS AGAINST YOU: IMPOSITION OF LIENS AGAINST YOUR PROPERTY; LOSS OF YOUR PROFESSIONAL OR OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE, DRIVER'S LICENSE, OR RECREATIONAL LICENSE; WITHHOLDING FROM YOUR INCOME; ACCESS RESTRICTION AND DEDUCTION FROM YOUR ACCOUNTS IN FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS; AND ANY OTHER ACTION PERMITTED BY LAW TO OBTAIN MONEY FROM YOU TO SATISFY YOUR SUPPORT OBLIGATION.

If a custodial parent or non-parent legal custodian, or if you participate in a shared parenting plan, and you plan to move, you MUST file a "Notice of Intent to Relocate" (WCJC Form 7.0) with the juvenile court clerk of courts and mail a copy to other parties and child support enforcement agency. If the relocating party is relocating within Warren County, Ohio the notice of intent to relocate shall be filed and served upon all other parties within custodial/parental/visitation rights and the CSEA not less than thirty (30) days prior to relocation. If the relocating party is relocating outside of Warren County, Ohio, then the notice of intent to relocate shall be filed and served upon all other parties with custodial/parental/visitation rights and the CSEA not less than sixty (60) days prior to relocation. Any party seeking modification of parental rights and responsibilities, companionship time, or child support due to the relocation shall file a motion with the Court.

If the court determines that the parent who is not the residential parent and legal custodian may claim the children as dependents for federal income tax purposes, the residential parent is ordered to take whatever action is necessary pursuant to §152 of the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C. 1, as amended, to enable the parent who is not the residential parent and legal custodian to claim the children as dependents for federal income tax purposes. Any willful failure of the residential parent to comply with the order of the court is contempt of court.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND EXPENSES

The person required to provide health insurance coverage shall designate the parties' minor children as covered dependents under any health insurance policy, contract, or plan for which that party contracts no later than 30 days after issuance of this order. Written verification of compliance with this order must be provided to the Warren County CSEA at P.O. Box 440, 500 Justice Drive, Lebanon OH 45036 immediately, but no later than 30 days after complying with this order.

The requirement to obtain health insurance for the parties' minor children under this order cannot be fulfilled through enrollment in the Medicaid system and such enrollment may require the Warren County CSEA to take action to modify your child support and/or health insurance orders.

If health insurance coverage for the parties' minor children is not presently available at a reasonable cost through a group policy, contract, or plan offered by either party's employer or through any other group policy, contract, or plan available to either party, and if health insurance coverage for the parties' minor children becomes available later at a reasonable cost, the person to whom the coverage becomes available shall obtain health insurance and inform the CSEA in writing within 30 days. "Reasonable cost" for these purposes is defined as 5% or less of a parent's annual gross income as identified on the most recently filed child support computation worksheet.

The person required to provide health insurance coverage shall provide the other party with all information regarding the benefits, limitations, and exclusions of the coverage, copies of any insurance forms necessary to receive reimbursement, payment, or other benefits under the coverage, and a copy of any necessary insurance cards no later than 30 days after the issuance of this order.

The individual who is to be reimbursed for out-of-pocket medical, optical, hospital, dental, or prescription expenses paid for the parties' minor children is the person who incurred the expense. Absent unusual circumstances, or court order to the contrary, request for reimbursement of health care expenses should be made within 30 days of the date when payment is made or due. Reimbursement should be made within 30 days of the request.

Nothing contained in this order prevents the health plan administrator that provides the health insurance coverage for the children from continuing to make payment for medical, optical, hospital, dental, or prescription services directly to any health care provider in accordance with the applicable health insurance policy, contract, or plan.

Pursuant to ORC §3119.56, an obligor or obligee who fails to comply with a child support order issued in accordance with §3119.30 of the ORC is liable to the other for any medical expenses incurred as a result of the failure to comply with the order.

Upon written request, an employer of any person required to obtain health insurance coverage is required to release to the other parent, any person subject to an order issued under §3109.19 of the ORC, or the CSEA, any necessary information on the health insurance coverage, including the name and address of the health plan administrator and any policy, contract, or plan number, and to otherwise comply with §3119.32 of the ORC and any order or notice issued under this section.

If the person required to obtain health insurance coverage for the children subject to this child support order obtains new employment, the agency shall comply with the requirements of §3119.34 of the ORC, which may result in the issuance of a notice requiring the new employer to take whatever action is necessary to enroll the parties' minor children in health insurance coverage provided by the new employer.

HEALTH INSURANCE & CASH MEDICAL SUPPORT

If private health insurance is accessible and reasonable, in accordance with ORC §3119.30, it is hereby ORDERED that, no later than 30 days after the issuance of this support order, such parent shall obtain and maintain private health insurance for the children covered by this order and that parent shall hereafter be referred to as the Health Insurance Obligor.

If private health insurance is not accessible and/or not reasonable in cost or becomes inaccessible or unreasonable in cost, in accordance with ORC §3119.30(C), the parent ordered to pay child support shall also pay Cash Medical Support during the period in which the children covered by this order are not covered by private health insurance.

The Cash Medical Support Order becomes effective on the first day of the month immediately following the month in which private health insurance coverage that had been in effect for the children becomes unavailable or terminates. The obligation to pay the Cash Medical Support Order shall stop on the last day of the month immediately preceding the month in which private health insurance coverage begins or resumes.

If private health insurance coverage for the children covered by this order becomes available to either parent through any group policy, contract or plan, that parent shall immediately inform the CSEA of the available coverage.

If the CSEA determines that private health insurance coverage is accessible and reasonable in cost, the CSEA shall notify both parties that the person to whom the coverage is available is now the Health Insurance Obligor and is ordered to obtain and maintain private health insurance for the children covered by this order and to meet the requirements identified under the “Notice to the Health Insurance Obligor,” to be issued by the CSEA, without an additional order or hearing.

APPENDIX VII

TOGETHER, WE HAVE A CHILD

Our child's name is _____, born _____.

We both have important rights and responsibilities with regard to our child. Whether or not we planned a pregnancy is no longer important. We are this child's mother and father.

Society and the law expect us to raise this child properly. We will decide if that can happen with us all in the same household, or if we have to live separately. Custody, shared parenting, and visitation are just words. They are used to describe the way parents spend time with their child. If we are not raising our child in one home, we will work together to create a schedule that provides a safe and stable living arrangement. We understand that children benefit from strong and appropriate relationships with BOTH parents. Disagreements may end up in the court system and then we will be required to abide by court orders.

We both have a legal duty to support our child. The parent with whom the child lives is usually paying the expenses. The other parent provides support by paying money to help pay the expenses. This "child support" is paid through the child support enforcement agency and records are kept. This is required by Ohio law and is not optional. If a parent is ordered to pay child support, only the money paid through the agency is counted towards that order. Any other money given or items purchased are considered gifts.

The two of us may or may not get along well, but our child's wellbeing is very important to us. We promise to talk to each other about our child, assuming of course that we are allowed to have communication and not otherwise prohibited from doing so. We also promise to shield our child from whatever disagreements we have with each other. We will also require our family members and friends to respect the fact that our child has two parents. We will not talk negatively about each other, nor allow such talk in the presence of our child.

Our legal rights and duties continue until at least our child's eighteenth birthday. Our moral duties continue forever. We promise to do everything we can to give our child the best chance. This includes decisions we make about who else we allow in our lives and whether or not we should have any more children.
